Hi!
I thought this Sport Article might interest you. Either click on the link below, or copy it into your browser address window and press "Enter."

From: Marty (Costa Mesa)

I shall just say this: Bon- jour, GIRLFRIEND, but I felt bad--almost--that I couldn't sit next to you after the Fa- kers' game Thursday night! It's now already Saturday, and don't forget to change clocks tonight, where 2:00 a.m. will become 1:00 a.m.! (Carolyn, on Thursday night, went home at 1:30 a.m., and didn't I tell you the other day that no shoes are the best shoes? Carolyn would have gone to the Lakers' game barefoot!) Okay, enough of the blogging. Tonight, Jenny, you'll get a story from St. Kitts about somebody named Hair! (Wasn't there a Cowsills song called Hair back in the 60's?) And guess what else, Jenny? I got a Royal Flush playing that Poker game I showed you, but I'm waiting to find out on when I can buy it! At least that's something oth- er than So Cuckoo, you know! Good night, Jenny--by the way, the Cardinals won the World Series, so you'll have to wait until 2007 for a picture! And since it's not yet Febru- ary 29th, you can still wear flip-flops to bed, but there won't be any more flip-flops in pictures--sacre bleu! Love, Marty (Maybe you should come to my house when Carolyn has not lately--just kidding)

This article was emailed to you at the request of : Marty (Costa Mesa) - MarCaro819@worldnet.att.net

The sender included the following brief message : Bonjour, GIRLFRIEND, and as for von boyage, I believe that will be coming in just 92 days! Are you sure we\'re leaving on February 18th, which happens to be Vanna White\'s 50th b\'day?? (In the year 2010, I\'ll be 50 years old myself, JENNY! And don\'t forget, in cruise language, you would become my new girlfriend, not to be confused with Carolyn who, yes, is still my girlfriend--you go figure out this!) No comment otherwise, but tonight you will get a story about two basketball teams in Alaska called the Nanooks, and the Rams, who I thought now play in St. Louis! (We don\'t call them the St. Louis Rams here, Jenny, because we don\'t want St. Louis in their name!) And speaking of football, tomorrow is the Grey Cup championship game, and I am still picking the Allowances over the Other Lions! In answering that first question you asked me about the cruise to Ensenada (where I got Kentucky Fried Chicken in 1974!), the answer is still si, senor- ita! And I can\'t wait for karaoke on the ship; I\'ll make Carolyn sing! Good night, Jenny--it\'s almost Novem- ber 19th, and you have 468 chances to wear flip-flops to bed! By contrast, my cousin Shae just got married today and she went barefoot like Julia Rob- erts! (I don\'t know when Carolyn and I will get married--still no comment!) Love, Marty

Read the Fairbanks Daily News-Miner online.

Nanooks to battle the Rams

The Rockett needs a boost.

The Alaska Nanooks will require a more balanced effort if they are to upset the University of Rhode Island tonight at the BP Top of the World Classic.

On Thursday, despite a gargantuan performance from senior forward Jushay Rockett, the Nanooks dropped their opener to Weber State 71-66 in overtime. Now they face a much taller Rams squad that likes to play an up-tempo style and is looking to avenge an 84-78 setback Thursday to Troy University.

"We have our hands full with their size and athleticism and their depth," Alaska coach Frank Ostanik said Friday.

Rockett tallied 32 points against WSU, a Nanooks' record for the Classic, but due to fatigue and foul trouble scored just five of those points in the final 20 minutes. And though Alaska overcame a 10-point deficit in the final six minutes of regulation, with the five starters logging virtually all the playing time, the team was clearly drained in overtime as Weber State took charge.

"We're gonna definitely go deeper down the bench," said Ostanik. "To give ourselves an opportunity to compete on Sunday, we need to rest guys."

Dear JennyBeachGirl@socal.rr.com,

Your friend MarCaro819@worldnet.att.net thought you might be interested in this canada.com story:

"Crunch time for Bisons, Huskies"

http://www.canada.com/saskatoonstarphoenix/news/sports/story.html?id=737ed65d-fecc-4d66-8507-12b41514d604&k=75337

Bonjour, GIRLFRIEND! This would have been my third E-mail sent to you on Veteran's Day--at least you are a veteran in the matter of being that old saying--A BIG FLIRT!!

Unfortunately, one of them didn't get through, and now, as you should know, Jenny, it's Sunday, November 12th--the last day of the photo album season! (Maybe next year, you will be in the 2007 photo gallery.)

And Carolyn should return home tonight from Malibu, or Santa Monica, or Saskatoon, where this story is being mailed to you from.

(Actually, it's the Internut version of Saskatoon, eh?)

Are you a fan of the University of Saskatchewan (god bless you!) and Girlitoba? They're both better than the Afraiders, and the Cow Toys!

But the biggest story of them all, GIRLY GIRL, is that I have another new cell phone--it's a Sprint C290 with a photo of a smiling barefoot lady on the cover--poor baby--and I have with it, a new phone number!

The new number is (714) 862-6446, not to be confused with 867-5309, followed by YOUR OWN FIRST NAME!

(Remember the old song 867-5309 Jenny?)

Good night, Miss 8675309, and yes, you can still wear flip-flops to bed--because it's not yet MMVIII!!

Love, Marty

Subject: Bucketworks - Profiles/JennyGibson

Bonjour, GIRLFRIEND!

I should make this 1 1/2 E-mails being sent to you and in this one, you will shake your head, and the stomach will prompt you to lose 20 killer grams!

You heard of that Mets' catcher, Harry Chiti--I told you about him once--he was traded to Cleveland for himself, or something like that.

This, JENNY, is about yourself--are you a belly dancer, and is this what you do for a living?

After all, we're going to the dance Friday night, so maybe you should show me those belly-dancing moves! Tell Gypsy Rose Lee (who is deceased) to make room for you!

Good night, Jiggling Jenny, and I hope you, and the real Jenny Gibson that you'll be getting a profile about (and yes, the one in Australia!) all wear flip-flops to bed! Is this strange or what?

Oh yes, Carolyn came back from Santa Monica last night, and she was in mi casa! Now to all girls with that first and last name, put on the shoes! (But if you go barefoot, c'est la vie, you know!)

Love, Marty

And finally, did you get down my new cell phone # which is (714) 862-6446, or in old style, that's TOronto 2-6446? I still have Giggle in my phone!

If your email doesn't support HTML, please visit the page: http://www.bucketworks.org/Profiles/JennyGibson

My Current Projects

- I teach the Belly Dance ? class at Bucketworks.

Personal Profile

I have been bellydancing for 12 years now. My main bellydance instructor was Pat Keller. I have also taken workshops and classes with Nadia Sahar, Rachel Brice, Domba, Blue Lotus Tribe, and have done much independent study. I have done various solo performances at The Bristol Renaissance Faire, and private parties. I've done many group performances with Barika Bellydance at Asain Moon Fest, Arabian Fest and other venues. I have also taught bellydance before.
I have also taken ballet, jazz, african, and musical theatre dance classes in my attendance at Milwaukee High School of the Arts and UW Milwaukee.

I love bellydance because it is an artform that I can use to express myself. I want to give my students the tools to use this dance creativly.

Dear Jenny Gibson

Marty (Costa Mesa) (MarCaro819@worldnet.att.net) spotted this article on the Cape Argus website and thought you'd find it interesting.

Message: Hi again, Jenny! I forgot that you've changed E-mails in August, which I re- call was one week after I changed mine! This...is the same story from South Africa, GIRLY GIRL, except that I have to remind you just one thing: good night, and yes, put on those flip-flops, Jen! Love, Marty

Minnows Wycombe face mighty Chelsea in Cup semis

League Two team Wycombe will play 2005 champions Chelsea in the semi-finals of the English League Cup next year.

Marty (Costa Mesa) saw this story on the BBC News website and thought you should see it.

 Message **
Bonjour, GIRLFRIEND--I just spoke to you 55 minutes ago, Jenny!

But, as Al Michaels had said on TV who cares?

Tonight, you'll get an unusual story from the BBC--which does not stand for Bye-Bye Carolyn--a 2005 article
about Cookie Monster
going on a diet!

(Yes, the famous Sesame Street icon on TV, GIRLY GIRL--take it or leave it!)

And until I see you in what is now 20 horas,
buenos noches, Madame Gibson, and yes,
even in Nunavut, Canada, I hope you wear
flip-flops to bed!

(I may still give them to you manana--that old Peggy Lee song!)

Love, Marty--Was this 1,000 characters?

Marty (Costa Mesa) (MarCaro819@worldnet.att.net) has sent you the Feature News page

Personal message:

Bonjour, GIRLFRIEND, and tonight it's only 1 1/2 E-mails! (I was once called 'Only' when I worked at Dorcy Cycle, a place where bicycle accessories were made--in Garden Grove way back in 1979!)

(Yes, Jenny, you may have heard every-thing in both languages--English and en francais!)

Tonight, on a Sunday, GIRLY GIRL, you'll get a story about some kind of a movie that premiered in Canada, on the Yahoo/ India website (yes, India)!

And later today, I'll have to schlepp to Long Beach--again--to see a swimming event because it's too cold to be out-side--until 6:15 a.m., that is! That's only about 4 1/2 hours from now!

And it's only 5 1/2 days from another hot date with you at the dance, except that Carolyn's also going--she was here last night, because it's Sunday now!

Oh yes, one other thing: my niece Tiffany, with three kids, too! k her boots off at my parents' house (Carolyn, unfortunately, didn't make it)--poor baby award for her!

And of course, I would know why she did it: boots means death, in classic language--you heard of the old saying, die with your boots on, except that we shall not comment about it--they'll remind us!

As a consolation, Jenny, or maybe it's good night, Dora the Explorer, and you can still wear flip-flops to bed on this Nova Scotia-like weather night here!

But there won't be any more flip-flops after next year, you know!

Love, Marty
